

RIAIMH Membership

RIAIMH is a membership association for professionals concerned with the social and emotional well-being of pregnant women, young children (birth to six), and their families. We also invite parent partners and graduate/undergraduate students to join the conversation!

Become a member today!

Details & Benefits:

- Membership year: January 1 – December 31
- $30.00 annual Individual Membership fee
- Agency Sponsored Individual Memberships
- Annual renewal by January 1st
- Free or discounted event registration fees*
- IMH Competency and DEI&B aligned events & trainings
- RIAIMH Annual Events:
 - Community Conversation Series, 6 sessions (January-December)
 - Annual Members Meeting - February
 - Annual Making Connections Conference
 - Annual Celebrating Babies Meeting - October
- RIAIMH offers:
 - Professional Development Training & Learning Collaboratives
 - Reflective Supervision/Consultation (RSC)
 - Infant & Early Childhood Mental Health Endorsement Credential
 - CELP (Center for Early Learning Professionals) PD units/events at no charge
 - NASW (National Association for Social Workers) CEUs at low cost/session
- Access to all information on the RIAIMH website, including:
 - RIAIMH Membership directory
 - Past event materials (such as slides, recordings, references, etc.)
- Membership Profile:
 - List of all your event registrations
 - List of all your past purchases/registration/CEU (does not include credit card information)

*Member registration cost is FREE to attend Community Conversation Series.

RIAIMH collaborates with local and state agencies to provide Agency Sponsored Individual Memberships, cover Conference fees, and provide Endorsement® scholarships that cover Endorsement registration and application fees. Check with your supervisor! If interested in sponsoring contact mlynch@riaimh.org